Re: MUR 6916

Dear Assistant General Counsel Jeff S. Jordan,

I, Rebekah Durr as the Treasurer for Hutto for US Senate respond to the Complaint filed by the Foundation for Accountability and Civic Trust as follows:

I have no knowledge regarding the allegations of the complaint. Hutto for US Senate represents the campaign waged by Brad Hutto for US Senate for a seat representing the State of South Carolina for both the primary and general election for 2014. The campaign was active from March, 2014 - December, 2014 and is planning to file its termination report before the next filing period. The only NGP product used by the campaign was the software which was used for campaign contribution record keeping, campaign reporting and emails. Monies were paid to NGP for use of the software as reported in our FEC filings. Other software was available that could have been used by the campaign for record keeping, reporting, and emails at a same or lesser price, however, the campaign manager selected NGP and that is what was utilized. No in kind contribution has been made to Hutto for US Senate from NGP. Hutto for US Senate has paid all invoices for the software. I am making the above statement under oath as evidenced by my signature below which has been notarized.

Sincerely,
